Blush Novelties is excited to introduce Gaia, the first line of biodegradable vibrators. Made of BioFeel, a bioplastic or polymer compound mixed with cornstarch, the vibrator is biodegradable. At Blush Novelties, we're always looking to be innovative with our choice of materials. This material was the perfect choice for a vibrator since it's nonporous, making it completely safe and clean for use in the body.

The Gaia line takes away the guilt of ecological damage caused to the environment through your pursuit of pleasure. Our bioplastic will biodegrade within 47-90 days in a commercial composting facility.

With global warming becoming a bigger issue each year, at least you know there is one company thinking of your pleasure and the environment!
